

WINTER APPEAL 2011

It's an early winter morning in Kabul. The temperature is minus 5 degrees outside and the snow is piling up on the roof. The children put on their flimsy plastic shoes to go out early to buy some bread to feed the family breakfast. Some days they have very little to eat...

Dear Friend

Severe food shortages have been the norm in Afghanistan in recent years. In a country with many remote and mountainous regions, winter snow can effectively shut down whole sections of the country. People living in these areas suffer from lack of drinking water, food and medical services.

In Kabul, the snow is heavy and often damages the makeshift houses.

At Hope House, home of Mahboba's Promise, the line of widows and children begging for help grows long especially in Winter. To get through this winter, Mahboba's Promise is committed to helping as many of these people as possible. We hope to supply food, warm clothing, blankets, fuel and basic medical supplies to get them through.

As we in Australia get ready for another summer season when we get a chance to enjoy the abundance we have in this country, I'm asking you again for your assistance in helping to support my brothers and sisters in Afghanistan.

Our aim is to raise $10,000 towards vital assistance. Your help is crucial to get them through this winter.

Thanks so much for your help
